Thank you for your interest in participating in the curriculum reform consultation.

We will now ask you for some contact information and personal data (ethnicity, disability, belief etc) to meet our legal requirement to monitor equalities.

We may use the information collected here to contact you:

- with further questions about the consultation
- if we need to clarify your responses
- to tell you about the findings of the consultation
- about similar consultation exercises in the future, and
- to give you information about other QCA activities such as conferences.

We will also use this information to check that the consultation is representative.

This information will be kept strictly confidential. The analysis of responses will be carried out by an external organisation. This organisation must comply with the Data Protection Act in its handling of personal data and will only process personal data on instructions from QCA.

Proposals to update the non-statutory guidance on religious education

This consultation, offers all those involved in education, including teachers, governors, faith/belief communities, parents, employers and young people the opportunity to comment on the proposed update to the religious education sections of the non-statutory guidance of Circular 1/94.

The feedback you provide will be used by the government to help shape the final guidance on religious education.

The survey is nine questions long, across two sections and could take up to 15 minutes to complete, depending on how detailed your responses are.

Before starting the questionnaire you may find it useful to read the draft non-statutory guidance on religious education. This document is available at www.qca.org.uk/curriculumconsultation, or can be obtained by calling the QCA Enquiry line on 020 7509 5556 or by emailing info@qca.org.uk.

If you have any queries about this consultation, or the questionnaire, please email info@qca.org.uk or call QCA's Enquiry line on 020 7509 5556.

Your personal information, and the data collected in this survey, will be treated in the strictest confidence.

Thank you for your participation.
